

-19-

Abstract

The invention relates to peptides forming epitopes T of the antigen MMP-2, presented by MHC class I. Said peptides can especially be used in antitumoral immunotherapy.